SOURCE

25X1X6 ALBANIAN RESISTANCE (October 1946):

1. It is reported that King Zog has initiated action for uniting all Albanians abroad in an anti-Communist front and that he is sending to Albanians in Italy 3,000 gold Napoleons. Source states that since Zog is short of funds there is conjecture regarding the origin of this sum and that it may possibly have been offered by Egyptian royalty or the Arab League.
2. With respect to resistance within Albania, source reports that there is unity of action between the partisans of the Mirdita region and the resistance groups operating in the Kossova, Upper Dibreno, Malissia, and Mati regions. Some of them cooperate with the Partisan Nationalists and Montenegrin Chetnika. Source states that except for the Tomorissa and the Cerevoda regions there is little organized resistance in the South.

ALBANIAN WORKERS TO SLOVENIA (1 November 1946):

3. In accordance with overall policy, 320 young Albanian workers have been sent to Slovenia under the command of Gamil Buxhelli. They are to work on railway lines. Source alleges that further groups of about the same size are being sent out at short intervals.

COMMUNICATIONS (October 1946):

4. It is reported that the Kukes-Peshkopia road was reopened to traffic in the second half of October. The road is 60 kilometers long and was built under the direction of Soviet specialists by Yugoslav workers of the "Volunteer Youth Brigade".
